INQUIRY RULING

APPLICATION FOR MEDIA ACCREDITATION – CHANNEL 103

Pursuant to paragraph 3 of the Inquiry Protocol: Media and Conduct in the Inquiry's Hearing Room, a further application has been received from Channel 103.

As was made clear at the Inquiry's preliminary hearing on the 3 April 2014, the only benefit of accreditations relate to use of the media room at the Inquiry's premises at 11 Seaton Place, which is a limited facility that is relatively small. Given that there is currently a very limited number of applications for accreditation, it does not seem to the Inquiry that a decision is currently needed, and the matter will be kept under review unless and until any applications need to be considered, which will be determined by the likely calls for use of the media room facilities.

Subject: Inquiry Accreditation

Good Morning,

First of all my apologies that I have not contacted you earlier in relation to this request. My colleague attended the launch, and has since been away, hence the delay.

Please could I apply for accreditation on behalf of Channel 103.

The point of contact is myself - Giulia Heath, News Editor
Helier

6 Tunnell Street, St

Your second contact is Hannah Walker, Senior Broadcast Journalist,

The third journalist potentially covering the inquiry is Marie Raine
