

INQUIRY RULING

APPLICATIONS FOR MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Pursuant to paragraph 3 of the Inquiry Protocol: Media and Conduct in the Inquiry's Hearing Room, the Panel have considered the applications received for media accreditation from:

- The Sun
- The Press Association

Approved representatives from the above organisations will be permitted entry to the media room at Seaton Place and may be asked to present their press card as proof of identity.

The media are reminded that any breaches of media protocol could result in accreditation being withdrawn. The media are reminded that witnesses are not to be approached for interviews whilst in the vicinity of the Inquiry. Attention is drawn specifically in paragraph 12 of our media protocol published on our website.

Signed:

Frances Oldham QC

Hello Angharad,
this is the accreditation application for the Press Association.
I'm not sure why it hasn't got through to you and I'll forward you on any others.

We recommend this is granted,

Thanks,

Angharad, this is the application from the Sun.
According to an email thread, tells him it has been approved by the legal team.

Can this ruling, and the one for PA, be added to the website?

Thanks,
